What Mexican Mustang Liniment Does

Like finding $150.

GENTLEMEN:

For the past forty years my father and I have used MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT both on ourselves, our families and our stock, and I can assure you we have always found it a good thing to have with a good big horse.

I could not begin to tell you the number of wonderful cures it has effected. Seven years ago I had a fine young mule; one day a new driver straddled him with a heavy load that a veterinary surgeon whom I had called to see him said I might as well shoot him for he would never be of any use. I hated to kill the poor animal as I thought a good deal of him. I began to use Mexican Mustang Liniment, rubbing his legs, hind and fore-quarters well twice a day, and in two months he was as good as ever and I sold him for $100.

I have also found that harness sores, wens on the shoulder, knots and swellings don't stay long when Mexican Mustang Liniment gets after them. Yours very truly,

R. W. FARISH.
